MakeMeRevise.com — EdTech Platform

Founder & Product Builder

- Built and launched a comprehensive AI-powered revision platform the only platform that combines study resources with a personalised, science-based roadmap telling students exactly what to study and when, dynamically built around their exam date
- Secured $750 in funding from TETR's Innovation Fund to build and launch the platform.
- Developed and integrated multiple product features end-to-end: AI study roadmap generator, AI chat assistant (text + photo upload), AI mock exams with automated marking and examiner-style feedback, AI notes, flashcards, FAQs, and background study music
- Differentiated from existing platforms (e.g. Save My Exams) by going beyond static resources. MakeMeRevise actively guides the student through their revision journey using spaced repetition, Pomodoro, and interleaving
- Managing full product lifecycle independently: concept, design, development, bug fixing, and paywall integration ahead of full public launch
